Leadership Human Rights Organization seeks Accounting Manager

About Asylum Access
Asylum Access is a leading refugee human rights organization headquartered in Oakland, CA with substantial operations in three countries plus partnerships in additional countries across Africa, Asia and the Middle East, and Latin America. Asylum Access works to make human rights a reality for refugees in first countries of refuge. Our unique combination of policy advocacy and legal empowerment creates legal environments that help refugees live safely, move freely and work legally. By helping refugees assert their rights, we are putting power back into their hands. Our work transforms the traditional approach of endless humanitarian handouts to a sustainable solution that gives refugees the tools to provide for themselves and make choices about their own lives.

Asylum Access envisions a world where refugees are seen as people with rights, not just people with needs. Asylum Access believes that by empowering refugees to assert their human rights, we can create effective, lasting solutions for refugees around the world.

Why Work With Us?
Asylum Access is a great place to work! While we are passionate about building a world where refugees can rebuild their lives, we also believe doing this work well requires that we value and support our staff and volunteers. We strive to maintain a healthy workplace, and embrace flexibility in hours and working locations so our team can fulfill their obligations and desires to family, self and community as well as to our work, our organization and our mission.

Position Description
The Accounting Manager will perform a variety of general accounting functions including the posting of transactions, posting of accruals, and conducting month-end closing procedures in five currencies. As a member of the finance team, the Accounting Manager will build and implement effective accounting systems, to provide accounting technical support to national operations, to consolidate accounting books at month end, to audit national offices' accounting data, and to support the management of the annual audit. An emphasis will be given to strengthen financial internal controls, to build and implement effective ways of working, and to issue-spot and correct accounting errors. Proficiency with NetSuite, Excel, Spanish, and nonprofit accounting are preferred for this position.

Key Responsibilities
Duties and responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Provide technical oversight, training, and back-up support for all accounting positions world-wide
- Apply internal accounting and financial policies and procedures, and bring inconsistencies or issues to the attention of the Global Finance Director
- Assist in the production of financial reports, as needed, in collaboration with the Global Finance Director

Co-leadership of annual audit and tax documentation (15%)

- Complete period-end processes including preparing journal entries, balance sheet reconciliations, and general ledger reconciliations
- Assist with the preparation and coordination of annual audit and tax-exempt schedules and activities
- Liaise directly with an auditing team during audit fieldwork
- Prepare 1099 forms for all HQ contractors, and assist in the preparation of tax-exempt reports

Perform other duties as assigned by the Global Finance Director (5%)

Preferred Qualifications

- Bachelor’s Degree in Finance or Accounting; CPA certification or equivalent highly preferred
- Strong knowledge of US GAAP (General Accepted Accounting Principles) for nonprofits
- Minimum of two years-experience in management accounting
- Demonstrated experience in nonprofit accounting; fund accounting preferred
- Ability to communicate effectively and concisely both verbally and in writing
- Strong initiative and ability to take ownership of projects, management multiple deadlines, and work effectively with a high level of attention to detail and accuracy
- Strong time management and organizational skills
- Cultural sensitivity and ability to work well with diverse populations
- Willingness to take calls in off-hours, as required by time zone constraints
Compensation and Benefits
The salary for this position is $70,000 to $75,000, depending on the candidate’s experience. Benefits include 20 days of PTO annually during the first two years of employment, plus a winter break from December 24 to January 1 inclusive; contributions to health insurance coverage for staff and dependents, including emergency coverage while traveling; family and medical leave guarantees; flexibility with regard to hours; professional development; and the opportunity to work with a diverse rockstar team of committed refugee rights leaders across the globe.

Work Location and Hours
This is a full-time position, ideally based at Asylum Access’s headquarters in downtown Oakland, California. Remote work is a possibility within the United States only.
