

Announcement for Volunteer Opportunity

Community Paralegal

Asylum Access Thailand (AAT) is seeking

- One individual of Khmer community;
- One individual of Hmong community;
- One individual of Afghanistan community;
- One individual of Iran community;

with lived experience of forced displacement to join our team of community paralegals.

Main responsibilities:

- Attend legal trainings
- Attend paralegal team meetings
- Conduct legal clinics for the Khmer OR Hmong OR Afghanistan OR Iran refugee communities
- Share information between the community and AAT office as required
- Assist with legal casework: e.g. conduct basic screening, documentation, act as mediator, visit clients, refer cases to legal advisor, and provide legal basic information
- Maintain a good relationship with and network within the community

The ideal candidate is someone who is/has:

- From the Khmer OR Hmong OR Afghanistan OR Iran communities in Bangkok
- Lived experience of forced displacement
- Fluent in English OR Thai
- Understanding of Khmer OR Hmong OR Afghanistan OR Iran cultures, the local refugee context, how to work with vulnerable people
- Able to problem solve and proactively follow up with the community
- Supportive of diversity and inclusion

Please contact thailand@asylumaccess.org with your CV if you are interested. Please also explain how you meet the position requirements and why you are interested in the position.

Please note: A stipend will be provided for this volunteer position.